

Chris Opie
Vice President, Commercial HVAC
Marketing, Business Development
Strategy

Chris Opie, has been with Carrier since 1994 with progressive experience in the HVAC industry, including leadership of the Carrier Global Rentals business unit, Sr. Director, Operations, North America Field Operations and Vice President, Commercial HVAC Platform Product Management and Marketing.

In his current role as Vice President, Marketing, Business Development & Strategy, Chris leads the development and execution of strategic marketing, communications, sales operations, new product development and strategy for Commercial HVAC

Chris earned Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing from Syracuse University.