

Gaurang Pandya President, Commercial HVAC Carrier Global

Gaurang Pandya is President, Commercial HVAC, for Carrier, with responsibility for leading the Carrier Commercial HVAC businesses in North America, Europe, Middle East and Asia Pacific which includes our Global Applied, Services and Controls businesses and our International RLC businesses.

Gaurang joined Carrier in 1999 and has held various positions with expanded responsibilities over this period, initially in finance and then across general management, spanning different regions in India, South East Asia and the Greater China Region. Prior to assuming his current role, Gaurang served as President of Global Equipment and most recently assumed the Commercial HVAC role.

During this journey over the last 21 years at Carrier / UTC, he has lead diverse teams and business across the HVAC, Fire & Security and Elevator industries, build winning teams that have leadership positions in their respective segments.

Gaurang holds a bachelor's degree from Delhi University and an accountancy degree from the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants in Glasgow, United Kingdom.