

Frank Silva
Product Management
Air-Cooled Products
Commercial Unitary Systems

Frank Silva is the Senior Product Marketing Manager responsible for the air-cooled products for the commercial market, domestic and international. He has over 30 years of industrial equipment experience and over 15 years within Carrier.

Prior to his current role, Frank held the position of Global Portfolio Manager with Ingersoll Rand. Prior to that role, Frank held positions of increasing responsibility, including Marketing Manager – Air Solutions Group, Project Manager, Area Manager, and Application Engineer. Frank holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering at UNIFEI, Brazil and a Master's in Business Administration degree from Wake Forest University in Winston Salem, NC. Frank is based out of Charlotte.

